Event Report

Academic Year: 2019 - 20

Semester- I

Name of the event: - Guest Lecture arranged on “Digital Signals and Systems”

Date and Time	19/09/2019, 10 am to 12 pm
Event Venue	Class Room No. 227
Organized by	Dr. D. Y. Patil School of Engineering
Targeted Audience	S.E. and T.E. E & TC
Resource Person	Dr. Ajay Deshmukh, Industrial Consultant , Pune

Event Contents:

1. Digital Signal and Systems
2. Laplace Transformation of Signals
3. Fourier Transformation of Signals
4. Motivate students to grasp the career opportunities in Digital Signal Processing

Details of the event:

Dr. Ajay Deshmukh conducted the expert lecture on Digital Signals and Systems. He describes the digital signals and systems in brief. He also describes the Laplace Transformation and Fourier Transformation of Signals. He elaborates the career opportunities in Digital Signal Processor and MATLAB developer after engineering. He motivates students to increase their affection for DSP engineering domain.

He gives many tricks to increase focus of students during their study and career.

Students asked various questions to understand the courses to become DSP engineer.
